FIRE CHIEF HOOKER RESIGNS

Marquis of Queensberry Sits at the Council Meeting—Commissioners Show Him Lively Session.

COUNCIL MEETING AT A GLANCE

Grant permission for an electric sign at Nachusa House.
Resignation of Chief of Fire Department Ed. Hooker is received.
Resignation of Chief Hooker accepted.
Effort to pass ordinance accepting light contract fails.

The Marquis of Queensberry was treated to something in the way of excitement at the council meeting last evening, and he almost got into a free-for-all, where the Marquis of Queensberry rules would have been in order.

Mayor Brinton had his distinguished guest sitting at his right hand but whether he was brought there as a referee or not is a matter of conjecture. Rev. Whitcombe was also the guest of the council.

When asked after the meeting if they went too fast for him the Marquis said that this session wasn't one, two, three with the House of Lords when they got into action.

Thomas Young Given Permit.
Thomas Young, proprietor of the Nachusa House, was given permission to hang an electric sign in front of his hotel.

Ed. Hooker, chief of the fire department, handed in his resignation, which was read by the city clerk, and Commissioner Gannon moved that the resignation be accepted, resignation to take effect December 1. This was done.

Mayor Brinton then brought up the matter of accepting the lighting contract offered by the Lee County Lighting company, and offered an ordinance to that effect, which he proposed the council pass. The progress of the passing of the ordinance received a big bump, however, when Commissioner Gannon got to his feet and moved that the ordinance and contract be laid on the table until the next regular meeting, to allow further investigation in the matter. Commissioner VanBibber seconded the motion, Commissioner Gannon expressed his dislike for the way the Lighting company was acting in the matter and stated that he did not believe the contract to be a good one for the city.

Commissioner Schmidt spoke up with the remark that the lighting contract had been delayed again and again and he could see no object in wasting any more time about it. He thought that the contract offered was the best the city could get and we would have to accept it. Gannon said: "I don't know that we have."
Mayor Brinton then took the floor. He stated that he had written to C. C. Smith of Milwaukee, asking him to please concede the inserts the council wished, and in return he got a long letter from Mr. Smith, which he read to the council.

The letter from Mr. Smith would infer that that gentleman was considerably put out over the manner in which the council and the public was acting about accepting the light contract.

Mr. Smith stated that he had always been fair in his dealings with Dixon people and that he had made them many concessions. He stated that he had never promised anything for Dixon that he had not carried out and that Dixon was getting a lower rate for electricity than any other city he knew of.

Mr. Smith said that if he had been dealing with each of the commissioners personally he would have settled the matter long ago and that none of them would ask as much for himself as the council was demanding for the city.

He spoke of the taxes the company paid and said he felt that they were entitled to as fair treatment as any one else in the city.

There had been rumblings and snorts and chuckles from Commissioner Gannon's corner all through the reading of the letter and it could be seen that Mr. Smith's words were getting on his nerves. He now addressed the council in no uncertain terms or tone.

Gannon Says "Bunk."

"This man is giving you all a beautiful line of bunk. If this man is honest why does he refuse to put the price to private consumers in the contract? It looks funny to me, when he promises that the rate will not be raised, but still he refuses to allow the present price to be put into the contract."

"I'll say this much: This ordinance can't pass this council tonight," said Mr. Gannon, and he evidently was sure of his ground.

Commissioner Schmidt said "Well, we can't make them put that price in the contract."

But this kind of talk evidently did not suit Commissioner Schuler, for he got up to say: "Say, now, if it comes to that, that we have to accept this thing, why, we won't do it, that's all. Please tell me, somebody, why this company refuses to put this price to private consumers in the contract. What's the difference? Why do they care whether it is in the contract or not, if they are going to do as they agreed and keep the price as low as it is?"

The discussion began to get rather heated. The Marquis of Queensberry began to sit up and look around and seemed to be glad that he came, after all. Two or three of the commissioners began to yell at the same time, and it looked as though someone might get a little nasty, and say something that would hurt someone else's feelings. Mayor Brinton pounded on the table with his gavel and said: "Gentlemen, please talk one at a time, will you?"

Won't Get Burned Again.

Mr. Gannon seemed to have the floor, and he said, "A burned child shuns the fire, we got burned once, and we're not going to get it again."

Mr. Brinton, in answer to Mr. Gannon's charges against Mr. Smith of Milwaukee, said: "I've known Mr.

ED HOOKER RE-SIGNS AS CHIEF

FIRE FIGHTER HAS PURCHASED HALF INTEREST IN THE MANHATTAN CAFE.

COFFEY MAY SUCCEED HIM

Thomas Coffey Is Popular and Has Been Recommended for Position.

Fire Chief Ed. Hooker, whose resignation from that office to take effect Dec. 1, was accepted by the city council at last night's meeting, yesterday purchased from Wilson Ankeny his interest in the Manhattan safe on Galena avenue, and the firm name hereafter will be Schrader & Hooker, Mr. Hooker assuming position of his interest this morning.

The deal, which was closed yesterday, consummates a change in one of Dixon's live institutions. Since the Manhattan cafe was started it has had wonderful success and as Mr. Hooker has had considerable experience as a cook and restaurant man, it is safe to predict this success will continue. He is popular with all who know him and leaves the city's service with the best wishes of the council and his associates in the department.

Has Been Chief Two Years.

Mr. Hooker has been chief of the fire department for the past two years, and during that time he has given efficient service. His direction of the department, especially at bad fires, has been good and his record during those two years shows only one disastrous fire, that of the Dixon brewery, when the firemen were helped as a result of the poor water pressure.

Coffey May Succeed.

It is very probable that Thomas Coffey, who has been a faithful and helpful man in the department for the past three years will be appointed chief to succeed Mr. Hooker. Mr. Coffey has shown remarkable ability at the fires the department has had since his connection with the fire fighters, he is popular with the men, and has their recommendation, as well as that of the retiring chief, for the position.

INTERURBAN CAR KILLS HORSE IN STERLING

Sterling, Nov. 28.—Special—Interurban car No. 22, due here at 4 p. m., struck and killed a horse ridden by Lee Wade of Penrose at 13th avenue in this city yesterday. The lad tried to drive the horse across ahead of the car and misjudged its speed. He was thrown to the ground, striking on his head, but fortunately escaped serious injury.

WELL KNOWN STERLING

YOUNG LADY IS DEAD
Sterling, Nov. 28.—Special—Miss May Henry, one of Sterling's most beautiful young women, died at her home this morning at 10 o'clock after an illness dating only since Saturday. She would have been 28 years old tomorrow. The funeral will be on Friday or Saturday.

E. E. DOWNS ACTIVE ON ELGIN-BELVIDERE LINE

The newspapers in Elgin and Belvidere seem to appreciate fully the work that General Manager E. E. Downs of the Elgin-Belvidere Electric road, is doing, according to the way they praise him and congratulate themselves on the improvement he is making.

The latest improvement on the line is "pay-as-you-enter" cars, to be used on the city service in Belvidere.

MOTHER OF DIXON PEOPLE DIED IN ROCKFORD

Mrs. Katherine Downs died in Rockford hospital yesterday morning. She had gone there for treatment, but succumbed to her illness yesterday morning. The remains were brought to Dixon at 10 a. m. today and taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Feldkirchner, on the Chicago road, where the funeral will be held Thursday at 9 a. m. and at St. Patrick's church at 10. Father Foley officiating. Interment will be in Oakwood, where the husband of the deceased was buried several years ago. In addition to Mrs. Feldkirchner the deceased is also survived by a son, Thomas, who accompanied the remains to Dixon.

REPUBLICAN EDITORS ASSAIL PRIMARY

CONVENTION IN SPRINGFIELD A LIVELY ONE—NEWSPAPER MEN FOR TAFT AND STATE ADMINISTRATION.

CRITICIZE CHICAGO NEWSPAPERS

Appoint Committee to Secure Pledge
From Candidates to Support
Winner in Primaries.

Springfield, Nov. 28.—Special to the Telegraph—The Illinois republican Editors' convention, in session here, adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, The country is on the eve of a general campaign and it is the province of the press to stimulate party unity, and thereby contribute to the continuance of the policies which have invariably produced prosperity and general welfare,

Therefore, we, the Republican Editorial association of Illinois, reaffirm our loyalty to the principles of the republican party. We unqualifiedly approve the candidacy of Wm. H. Taft for renomination for the presidency and heartily endorse both our national and state administration.

We adhere to the republican principles of protection and favor a scientific revision of the tariff which contemplates the maintenance of the American rate of wages and American standard of living.

We are unalterably opposed to the socialistic doctrines embodied in the initiative, referendum and recall, and denounce these measures as destructive of representative government.

We demand of every candidate for nomination in the republican primary in the state, district and county tickets that he publicly pledge himself, prior to the primary election, to support the successful candidate and that we regard the advisory primary vote of the state as a whole on United States senator as binding on members of the General Assembly.

Don't Like Primary.

We recognize that the state wide primary law is not productive of the results intended. That it is a rich candidate's advantage and not a poor one's opportunity. That it is a taxation burden on the people and in its operation nullifies party harmony and substitutes plurality rule for majority rule.

Therefore, we recommend an amendment to limit nominations by primaries to county and minor offices, and recommend a system of conventions composed of delegates chosen by the people at primary election for all nominations for higher than the county officers.

These conventions should be the final arbiters of men and measures within the jurisdiction.

Roast Chicago Papers.

Believing that the insidious misrepresentation and garbled statements of the metropolitan press of our state, actuated by selfish motives and desire to dominate public interests, and seldom for the public good, are proving destructive of party unity, we call upon the republican press of the state to courageously meet the situation by pointing out the truth to the voters.

Following the election of a democratic congress in the last general elections we have witnessed the closing of mine and factories and a general depression in business, notwithstanding bounteous harvests. We feel that it is time the republicans ceased factional strife and present a solid front to the common enemy, the democrats.

Committee to Get Pledges.

On the motion of S. B. Poach, of the Kankakee Republican, a committee of three was appointed by Chairman Snively to meet with the candidate and secure pledges from them that they will abide by the results of the primary elections. The chairman to be the chairman of the committee. The following is the committee: C. E. Snively of the Canton Register, Z. L. Landers of the Oregon Republican, and J. C. Adams of the Peotone Vidette.

ELKS OPENING HUGE SUCCESS

LARGEST FIRST NIGHT IN HISTORY—AUDIENCE PLEASED WITH QUEENSBERRY.

FATHER FOLEY ANSWERS MARQUIS

Foley Says That England Hadn't
Much Respect for Us Until We Trimmed Them.

With a flourish that has seldom marked the opening night of any fair or bazaar in Dixon, the Elks' tenth annual event, the proceeds of which are to augment the building fund of the lodge, opened last night at Rosbrook hall. The crowd was exceptionally large and His Grace, the Marquis of Queensberry, Mr. Douglas who was the attraction of the evening, was highly gratified with the interest shown him, and the close attention with which his few remarks were received.

The Marquis was introduced by Mayor W. B. Brinton, whose guest he was during his stay in Dixon, the mayor saying in part: We have with us this evening a very distinguished gentleman from a country where they believe in innocent sports and encourage them for the manhood, gentility and health they develop. It is my pleasure this evening to introduce a man who has done much to help in the uplift of these sports. The Marquis of Queensberry, Mr. Douglas.

Marquis Likes America.

Queensberry's informal address was very interesting, and throughout the time he talked the closest attention of the audience was given him. He said briefly: "I am only too pleased to come here and address you people, and I must say that in the three months I have been in America I have come to feel very much at home. It is only during that time I have been called upon to make public speeches, but when I tell you that at least 80 per cent of the names I have heard this afternoon are familiar to me, you will understand why I feel at home with you here tonight. I am familiar with your ways, and your good mayor here is just such a man as my father was. Your city is a beautiful one. I was born and brought up in the country and I'm a country man, therefore I've enjoyed every minute of my visit here, my trip about the city, your river and all the beauties of the place."

"It seems that wherever I go I am called upon to speak of sports, seems to be my fate to be known as the son of the man who wrote the boxing rules. But I wish you to understand that sports are not the uppermost things in my life, and have other aims in life than to sit beside the boxing ring or mingle with prize fighters. The boxing rules which bear my father's name were written by him while he was at Cambridge and were drawn to make boxing, not prize fighting, more manly and fair. They were written especially and only for the students at Cambridge, but their evident fairness soon brought about their adoption by other universities and clubs where boxing was a leading sport, and soon afterward the prize ring, which is the professional side of boxing, adopted them. I must say a word in defense of boxing and as there are ladies present I will address my remarks to them, for the ladies are the mothers of the future and I know every woman wants her boy to grow up brave, strong, fearless and honest. Boxing does this. Every sport has a professional side and the prize ring is the professional side of boxing. It can not be helped.

Not Sports Enough Here.

"In my opinion you do not have enough sports here. In England we have many more sports. There are two or three fox hunts every week. There we course greyhounds, rabbits and hares. You people should encourage more sports. Of course you people have been too busy opening this great new country to have the leisure classes we have on the other side. Sports bring all classes together and here in Dixon you should encourage weekly games, which will bring the populace from miles around. Racing should be encouraged. In England it is an institution, and to try to stop it would bring about a revolution.

MILES CLEMENTS, KILLED AND MANGLED

EARL GREY

Whose Speech in House of Commons Makes History.

FATHER OF MRS. HAMILTON OF
NELSON STRUCK BY TRAIN
DURING NIGHT.

WAS FOUND IN SNOW BANK

Was Discovered by Track Walker
This Morning—Inquest at Staples' Tonight.

The body of Miles Clements, father of Mrs. R. L. Hamilton of Nelson, mangled to such an extent that identity was established only by letters and cards found in the pockets of his clothing, was found covered with snow along the C. & N. W. railroad about a mile and a half west of the city this morning at 10:45 by Joseph Lowrey, track walker.

The condition of the body and the fact that it was covered with snow, together with the knowledge that the unfortunate man had started to walk from Dixon to Nelson last night, leads to the belief that Clements was struck and killed by a westbound train, probably passenger train No. 11, due here at 8:37 o'clock.

In Awful Condition.

The body was frightfully mangled, almost the entire head being torn off and mangled, the legs and arms were broken and mangled where the wheels had run over him and there is evidence of great abdominal injuries. Lowrey, while performing his usual duty as track inspector, noticed the man's hand protruding from the snow, down the embankment south of the tracks. Lowrey immediately notified the officials at the local depot and the section gang was sent out to bring the body to this city. It was taken to the undertaking rooms of Joseph Staples on West First street where it will be kept until the coroner's inquest is held. Coroner Smith has been notified and the inquest will probably be held this evening or tomorrow morning.

Letters Establish Identity.
In the man's pockets were found letters and cards which established his identity. There were letters addressed to him at 809 Douglas street, Peoria, other letters showing he had come to Nelson to visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Hamilton, and her husband, who is telegraph operator for the Northwestern at Nelson.

Unmailed Letter to Daughter.

In the pocket also was a letter the victim of the accident had written on Nov. 23 to a daughter, Miss Tena Clements, 1201 Terminal Station, Bartonville, Ill. This letter, which he signs "Dear Old Dad," shows the affection which he held for his children, and he promised to remember her on Christmas.

There was a hunting license issued by City Clerk Blake Grover on Nov. 22, last Wednesday, which established his age at 61 years, weight 140 pounds, height 5 feet 8 inches and his hair and eyes as grey. His pockets also contained $2.74 in cash, a ticket from Nelson to Dixon, several coupons bearing the firm name of R. D. McDougal, druggist, Main and Adams street, Peoria, a broken pair of eye glasses, two tobacco cans containing respectively powder and fine shot, an "H. and A." watch of cheap make, and numerous miscellaneous articles.

Daughter Had Been Ill.

Another letter, written by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, to the deceased while he was in Peoria, tells of a recent critical illness of Mrs. Hamilton, during which it was necessary for her to take treatment at the Dixon hospital, and it is probable that his presence in Nelson was brought about by his desire to see his daughter.

He was dressed well, new shoes and new underclothing and appeared to be a man of refinement. A valuable gold ring on one of his fingers also indicated his pride in his appearance.

Started to Walk to Nelson.

Officials at the local Northwestern station say that the victim of the ac-

WHAT LISZT DID FOR MUSIC

His Compelling Personality, Genius and Inspiration Made Possible the Later Wagner.

But he introduced into the musty academic atmosphere of musical Europe a strong, fresh breeze from the Hungarian puszta; this wandering piano player of Hungarian-Austrian blood, a genuine cosmopolite, taught music a new charm, the charm of the unexpected, of the improvised. The freedom of Beethoven in his later works and of Chopin in all his music became the principal factor in the style of Liszt. Music must have the shape of an improvisation. In the Hungarian rhapsodies, the majority of which begin in a mosque and always end in a tavern, are the extremes of his system. His orchestral and vocal works, the two symphonies, the masses and oratorios and symphonic poems are full of dignity, poetic feeling, religious spirit, and a largeness of accent and manner. Yet the gypsy glance and gypsy voice lurk behind many a pious or pompous bar. Apart from his invention of a new form—or rather the condensation and revival of an old one—the symphonic poem—Liszt's greatest contribution to art is the wild, truant, rhapsodic extempore element he infused into modern music; nature in her most reckless, untrammelled moods he interpreted with fidelity. But the drummers in the line of moral gasoline who controlled criticism in Germany refused to see Liszt except as an ex-piano virtuoso with the morals of a fly and a perverter of art. Even the piquant triangle in his piano concerto was suspected as possibly suggesting the usual situation of French comedy.

The Liszt-Wagner question no longer presents any difficulties to the fair-minded. It is a simple one, for men still living know that Wagner, to reach his musical apogee, to reach his public, had to lean heavily on the musical genius and individual inspiration of Liszt. The later Wagner would not have existed—as we now know him—without first traversing the garden of Liszt. This is not a theory but a fact.—From Franz Liszt—The Real and Legendary, by James Huneker, in Scribner's.

FAMILY THEATRE

The bill at the Family made a hit last night and was surely up to the standard. The Gotham City quartet was a "dandy" and brought down the house. One gent in particular in this quartet is a sure enough comedian. Their voices are very good too, and their selection fine. They will sing different songs each night.

Cross and Gross are extraordinary. They are high class and finished musicians. They entertained their listeners with a good selection of high class music.

Buster Brown and Mary Jane did not arrive last evening, owing to some unfortunate mistake, but will be on hand this evening. They are highly recommended.

The pictures were excellent last evening, the wonderful production, The Battle Hymn of the Republic, being shown.

PRESIDENTS ON TOUR

ARTHUR AND CLEVELAND WERE NOT GOOD TRAVELERS.

Latter Did Not Like Crowds—Harrison Was Impatient—Once Had Train Sidetracked in Woods So He Could Rest.

"If anybody traveling needs rest over Sunday it is a president on a jaunt," said a man who has been out with several presidents. "Fortunately for Mr. Taft, he likes this sort of thing, but I notice that he has ordered rests over Sunday in his itinerary."

"I have traveled with Arthur, McKinley, Cleveland and Harrison on their jaunts. Arthur, in spite of his talent for mixing with a New York crowd, was never equal to the job in the country. If any town in this country is up on the art of catering to any exclusive taste it is Louisville, Ky. Arthur was the first Republican president to go south, and Louisville spread herself to make him feel at home. Political lines were obliterated on the occasion of his visit when he went there to open the cotton exposition. The Pendennis club gave him a banquet fit for a king, but he was glad when it was over."

"When he left Chicago for his hunt in Yellowstone he told Phil Sheridan, who had charge of the party, that he was glad he was going where he could have uninterrupted rest."

"McKinley was not as good a traveler as Taft, but he never showed that he was tired. I heard him say once that he wished railroad companies would make some arrangement by which a log cabin could be attached to a train instead of a Pullman sleeper."

"Cleveland never liked a crowd. He fretted under handshaking and always grunted when he had to make a rear-platform speech. When he visited Chicago with his bride he got the greatest reception ever seen in that city. The fact that Mrs. Cleveland broke down under the strain of the excitement may have had something to do with making Cleveland impatient, but the way he raved over the jam and mismanagement of the affair would have melted the type of any newspaper that tried to quote him. When he left the city for Madison, where he was a guest of Colonel Vilas, he expressed himself as delighted over the rest to which he was bound. I saw him at an inaugural ball in Washington. I wouldn't like to repeat what I heard him say about the mob on the floor."

"Harrison was the most impatient presidential traveler of all I ever jaunted with. One night the crowd in Burlington became unmanageable. It was the worst I ever saw. The police were as useless as a lot of wooden soldiers. When the meeting was over and Harrison and his party went to the presidential train, Harrison asked when the train was due at the next stop, Oskaloosa, Ia., where he was to open the Corn Palace the next day. When he was told that the schedule was for noon the following day he requested that the train be sidetracked somewhere for the remainder of the night in order that he might get rest."

"It was so ordered, and the train was run out of Burlington about 40 miles and placed on a siding in the woods. There it remained until after breakfast. For the first time in any presidential jaunt that I ever heard of, the president was lost to the people of the country for 10 hours. There was no wireless apparatus then."

The next day, when Harrison and his party reached St. Joseph, Mo., he was routed out of bed at sunrise to take breakfast at the railroad station and talk to the people. I think Harrison came nearer forgetting his Presbyterian pledge than he ever did before."—New York Sun.

He Had a Past.

"I can't, I can't, I can't!" he groaned. "Can you not?" she said sympathetically. The girl loved him.

"No," he cried. "I have a past, and it is only fair that you should know. I would marry no girl on false pretences. She might find it out afterward. I have a past."

"Reveal it," she cried softly. "I could forgive you anything." For the girl loved him.

"I told you that I left my home town to seek my fortune," he said hoarsely. "That is not true. I had to flee it." "One day—about six o'clock, it was, well I remember the time—a fellow townsman passed me with his little boy. Suddenly the child fell, slipped, stumbled, to the street."

"Ah, I see it is son down!" I remarked, gazing up at the sky.

"A number of citizens heard me; the news spread, and—well, to make a short story shorter, the town got too hot for me. Can you forgive me for that?"

Shuddering, the girl shrank away from him. Her lips moved, but the power of speech had deserted her. Sadly he reached for his hat.

Intrinsic Values.

"Why do you select Charles Instead of George?" asked Maude.

"Well," replied Maymie, "George said I had eyes like violets, cheeks like wild roses, shell-like ears and lips like cherries."

"Very pretty."

"Yes. But Charles said I had eyes like diamonds, teeth like pearls and lips like rubies. It seemed to me that his ideas were much more practical."

German Students and Their Dogs.

Dogs are nowhere in such favor as companions for men as among the college students of Germany. Each student is apt to have one or more marked by the college colors and trained to render service by carrying water, baskets, bundles and the like.

SOAK THE RAILROAD, DURN 'EM.

The following clipping from a railroad journal just about tells the truth about things as they are:

Once there was a little E-Flat town that needed a direct communication with a trunk line.

A promoter wearing Sunday clothing and smoking 40 cent cigars came out from the city to see about it.

The daily paper put him on the front page. Five dollars was the setback for each plate at the banquet tendered him by the Mercantile association. A bonus was offered, together with a site for the repairshop and the round house.

When the college graduates in khaki suits began to drag chains across lots a wave of joy engulfed Main street from the grain elevator clear out to the creamery.

Then came 10,000 Carusos temporarily residing in box cars, to disarrange the face of nature and put a culvert over the creek. Real estate dealers emerged from their holes and local Rip Van Winkles began to sit up and rub their eyes.

One morning a train zipped in through the cut and pulled up at the new station.

The road was an assured fact. The rails were spiked down, the rolling stock was in commission and trains were running according to the schedule.

There was no longer any reason for waiting, so the citizens hiked over to the court house and began to file damage suits. The town council started in to pass ordinances and the board of equalization whooped up the taxes.

Horny handed jurors hung around the circuit court room waiting for a chance to take a wallop at the soulless corporation.

When the promoter came along on a tour of inspection the only person down to meet him was the sheriff.

Children in the public school practiced the new oval penmanship by filling their copy books with the following popular catch-line: "When you have a chance to Soak the Railroad, go to it."

And the Trains never ran to suit

Houray! Another holiday is coming.

Also, so-long, old top. We have been honored. The Marquis borrowed the only pencil we had last evening and very kindly kept it so we could remember him longer. By this time our pencil is probably scratching out bunk for the sporting page of the Chi. Trib. So tomorrow, when you peruse that, stop to remember that it came from our pen, or our pencil.

We shall charge the same up to that paper too, and incidentally may get a bonus.

Don't blame the man who wears whiskers. He's probably seen his original face and you haven't.

Last call for the big Thanksgiving ball. Attend it Wednesday evening, Nov. 29.

The writer wishes all a hearty Thanksgiving.

Let all eyes be turned to the Lee county farmers' institute, to be held in West Brooklyn December 13, 14, 15, 1911.

Let the Foresters remember that their annual election of officers will occur on the first Thursday night of December instead of the second.

It is a good idea for every stockholder of the West Brooklyn Farmers' Elevator company to come to town Monday, Dec. 11, and cast his vote for his favorites to officer the concern the coming year.

The National Live Stock Insurance company through their agent, Oliver L. Gehant at West Brooklyn, has paid F. J. Gallisath $150 in settlement for the death of a mare insured in their company, which died a few weeks ago. Since that time he has lost another mare and will likewise reap another $150. Don't that look pretty good? $300 for two carcasses just because he had the foresight to take out insurance on his stock.

The Farmers' elevator shelled the ear corn which they have been storing in the cribs west of their elevator.

Miss Leafy Gehant will arrive on Wednesday to visit on Thanksgiving with her parents. She will only stay a day or two and then return to her studies at St. Mary's academy, University of Notre Dame, Ind.

By the way, have you secured a premium list of the Farmers' institute yet? If not, call at the secretary's office and get one. There are plenty of them, so all can have one.

Alvin July was here from Scarborough Friday.

Henry Bauer was down from Eldena Friday, where he is staying at the county farm. He is selling a pipe which he makes himself which is quite a novelty. He makes these to pass away the time and besides their sales net him a neat sum for spending money.

Chas. Mackin was here from the Flatts Thursday.

A. M. Bieschke and Ed Johnson are painting out at Fred Burkhardt's these days.

Gift for St. Mary's.

An announcement read at the services in St. Mary's church on last Sunday morning tells of a gift of $1000 which will be made to the congregation by Andrew Carnegie for the purpose of purchasing a new pipe organ provided the congregation raise a large amount to put with this sum. This came as a surprise to the members of the local church and also for the specific purpose to which it must be devoted for the people still have a debt of about $3000 remaining on the present structure as it stands and which they would rather clear before undertaking other improvements and purchasing other equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Chaon were here from the Flatts Saturday shopping.

Arthur Starkey went to Sterling Friday.

Don't forget to attend the Thanksgiving ball and receive one of those handsome souvenirs which the firemen are giving every attendant on this occasion.

CO. G. IS PREPARED FOR INSPECTION

Members of Company G held an interesting drill and school of instruction at the Armory last evening, nearly every member of the company being present and as a result the soldier boys are now fully prepared for the coming inspection by Col. Greene of the U. S. A. Following the drill the boys worked hard preparing the Armory for the dance to be given by the Spanish War Veterans Thanksgiving night.

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

SALTS, CALOMEL AND CATHARTIC PILLS ARE VIOLENT; THEY ACT ON BOWELS AS PEPPER ACTS IN NOSTRILS.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have back ache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10 cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

GIVE BABY ACRE OF GROUND

California Men at Land Exposition Honor New-Born Child.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Little Miss Frank was born while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frank, visited the land exposition being held here. Inasmuch as it also was her first visit to her parents, the land show promoters made it an event to her doubly important, for she at once became a property owner.

The real estate men from the golden state presented her with an acre of ground in a rich California valley, with a proviso that should she move to the western state when of age a house would be built upon it for her.

HEAVY GEM ROBBERY

Window in Chicago Store Smashed and Contents Taken.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Jewelry valued at nearly $2,000 was taken from the window of Berg & Co., 516 Michigan avenue, early in the day by robbers who smashed the glass and carried away gold and silver mesh bags, rings, pins and other jewelry.

It was the second robbery of the kind in this store within a week and the fourth jewelry store robbery of the kind in the same period.

The bonds were the property of the Charles T. Yerkes estate.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance, or bad after-effects, as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world, can supply.

COMPTON.

Compton, Nov. 28.—The weather man has surely reserved the best until the last of November.

Nearly all of the farmers have finished their corn picking, or will have in a few days.

There will be a sunrise prayer and praise service in the M. E. church on Thursday morning. Everybody invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook are the proud parents of a baby girl.

The U. B. church will hold the bazaar at the opera house on Thanksgiving day. A Thanksgiving dinner will be served at noon and supper in the evening.

The first number on the lecture course was given by the Methodist Preachers' Male quartet of Chicago, assisted by Rev. E. T. Gale as reader at the opera house on Friday night.

There was a very gratifying attendance and the management was well pleased. The quartet work was beyond adverse criticism, and the singing of Rev. T. G. and Rev. Gage in their duets and solo work was exceptionally fine. No church could make a mistake in securing their services for a concert.

The Methodist church will hold their bazaar in the church on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 8 and 9. Dinner will be served on Saturday and a supper will be served on Friday night. Ice cream and cake may be obtained on Saturday evening. Come and meet your friends, have a good time meal and help on the good work by carrying home some of the useful and ornamental articles that are offered for sale.

Dr. Moore, district superintendent of the Dixon district, was in Compton Tuesday to hold the first quarterly conference of the local M. E. church.

Dr. White and family were over from West Brooklyn Friday evening to attend the concert given by the Methodist Preachers' Quartet. The doctor has quite recovered from his recent illness and is very busy with his practice.

Always hold your head up when you read. Have your book fourteen inches from your face. Be sure that the light is clear and good. Never read in a bad light. Never read with the sun shining directly on the book. Never face the light in reading. Let the light come from behind or over your left shoulder. Avoid books or paper printed indistinctly or in small type. Rest your eyes by looking away from the book every few minutes. Cleanse your eyes night and morning with pure water.

Governor Vesey of South Dakota, says: I have to say that, in my opinion, the suffrage movement is one that will ultimately win. In the first place I have been unable to find any good reason why men should have the right of suffrage that does not equally apply to women. I have no fear that woman will be made less womanly because of the extension to her of this right, and I do believe that it will materially improve the quality of conscience at the ballot box of the country, and also give women a just and proper consideration in matters pertaining to legislation. In other words, the success of the movement will accomplish much for our government by more adequately equalizing justice in the interests of the entire citizenship.

Peculiarities of Authors.

Addison, whose classic elegance has long been considered a model of style, was shy and absent in society, preserving, even before a single stranger, stiff and dignified silence. Rousseau was remarkably trite in conversation—not a word of fancy or eloquence warmed him.

Pessimistic Forecast.

"It is annoying to have to run into so many cranks," said the irritable person. "Yes," replied the mathematical friend; "but think what the world will be a few generations hence. The rate of the increase will be terrific. You can't live without meeting cranks, and you can't keep running into them without becoming one yourself."

Smith a long time, gentlemen, and he is just as honest as any man at this table."

Mr. Schuler said: "Well, what's the use of arguing about this. Let's have a vote on it. We've all got a right to think as we please."

Mr. Gannon was not through, however. He had many things to say of the lighting company. Said Mr. Gannon: "This company has always been arbitrary. They have never made one concession. They talk about their discounts. Why, there are none of the private consumers who use electricity enough to get a decent discount. The discount is no benefit. It's a beautiful scheme all the way through. They are worse now than they used to be. They used to exchange the bulbs when they were worn out. They don't do it now, however. Mr. Smith says that he has conceded many things to the city. Let him name one."

"Let me tell you that the majority of the people do not trust this corporation."

Mr. Schuler then said: "I think we should wait a week with this business. I'd like to ask Mr. Smith why he objects to putting that price in the contract. If he can explain it satisfactorily, all right. He'll have to explain it to me, though."

Mr. Brinton then arose. Said he: "I think I owe it to the tax payers to state that it is absolutely immaterial to me whether or not this contract is accepted tonight, or next week, or whether we ever accept it or not. However, every week we delay this action it costs the tax payers $100. But then I am not interested in any way, shape or form."

Mr. Gannon said: "This council has been very lenient with the company. They violate their franchises every day, at which we close our eyes." And he read a lighting franchise from a neighboring city which was more rigid than ours, asking how long this company would last under a franchise like that.

Mayor Brinton then said: "I will take the responsibility of putting the matter over another week," as he evidently saw there was no use putting the matter to a vote, with three commissioners against him. Commissioner Schmidt acquiesced.

A motion to adjourn was put and passed and the council repaired to the Elks' bazar.

The floor of the reception room will be covered with rugs and the other rooms with linoleum. The furniture is to be all in mission style. China's National Tree.

The national tree of China is the tung, a wood oil tree. The oil is procured from the seeds of its fruit, which is like a hickory nut, but as large as a small orange. The tung affords a fine shade, and its wood is prized by makers of musical instruments. It is thought the tree would flourish in our southern states.

OFFICIALS CLEAR AFFAIR AT AGADIR

Sir Edward Grey Makes Illuminating Address.

MR. ASQUITH ADDS BUT LITTLE

English Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs Tell People of Actions of Government During Dispute on Moroccan Matter.

London, Nov. 28. — Acknowledging Sir Edward Grey's and Bonar L. Law's speeches, Prime Minister Asquith, in the house of commons, said that he had little to add.

The government's only objects were to safeguard Great Britain's interests and maintain treaty obligations.

The transactions, he said, were never animated by rancor or hostility and there was no desire to hold back the ambitions of others. The government was not guilty of keeping the country in the dark with regards to its foreign policy.

Sir Edward Grey, secretary for foreign affairs, a few hours earlier had cleared the political atmosphere and poured oil on the turbulent waters of Anglo-German relations in a speech lasting an hour and a half.

The foreign secretary reviewed the whole Moroccan episode from the sudden appearance of the German gunboat Panther in the port of Agadir up to the signing of the Franco-German treaty. He unflinchingly upheld the attitude taken by the British government, but at the same time declared that its action was never antagonistic to Germany or to any settlement she was able to arrange with France which did not threaten the rights of Great Britain.

Sir Edward Grey made no secret of the fact that the situation had at one time been very tense, but believed his statements would prove a sedative to the world.

TORONTO GREET CONNAUGHT

New Governor General of Canada Warmly Welcomed.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 28.—A quarter of a million people from Toronto and surrounding districts welcomed the Duke and Duchess of Connaught to this city on the occasion of their first official visit to Toronto. They were met at the station by the lieutenant governor, prime minister of Ontario, and mayor of Toronto, who escorted them with a bodyguard through four miles of gorgeously decorated streets, lined with the military, high school cadets and school children and a cheering multitude.

At the city hall an address of welcome was read, to which the duke responded, after which the party left for Government House, where a dinner was given in their honor.

JEER MRS. PANKHURST

British Suffragette Given Tumultuous Reception by New Yorkers.

New York, Nov. 28.—Two thousand messenger boys and brokers' clerks outside the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co., at Broad and Wall streets, drowned the voice of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British suffragette, in a tumult of jeers, catcalls and cheers. Mrs. Pankhurst was scheduled to make an address on suffrage there at noon. She matched her voice against her tormentors for fifteen minutes and then gave up the unequal struggle.

When she sat down there was a rush for the automobile from which she spoke. The crowd wedged about the machine, stripped it of its flags and bunting, and with derisive cheering opened a lane in front through which a score of men and boys propelled the car down the street.

WISCONSIN MAN MURDERS TWO

KILLED WIFE AND COUSIN WITH HATCHET—CONFESED TO PRIEST

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 26.—Tortured by the mental picture of his headless wife and her paramour, whom he slew last night, Pasquale Marchesi, 37 years old, a merchant to day went to a priest and confessed his double crime, which had heretofore not been discovered. The young avenger of his honor was turned over to the police, who are closely guarding him for fear of possible mob violence tonight.

According to Marchesi he found his wife, Rosaria, and his cousin and namesake occupying Mrs. Marchesi's bed chamber last night. Younger Marchesi, who was not of age, had been a favorite of the husband, and the scene drove him mad, he said. With out allowing his presence to become known, Marchesi went to a woodshed, procured a hand axe, crept to the bedroom and chopped off their heads.

Taking his baby, two months old, from the arms of his slain wife, Marchesi washed the blood from its face, carried it to the home of his brother, and said that his wife was ill. He returned to the house, dressed his daughter Josephine, 4 years old, and took her to his brother's.

Marchesi then returned to the house, concealed the hatchet, and began wandering about the city. As morning began to dawn, the spectres that had haunted Marchesi all night as he slunk through back streets, drove him to hide in the basement of an Italian Catholic church.

In the darkness of the church basement, he said, he heard the death cries of his wife, and saw forms of headless persons rushing at him through the blackness.

Music Compels Him to Confess

As the music of the morning mass came faintly to his ears from the auditorium above, he said that he thought he distinguished the words, vengeance is mine, saith the Lord. Then he rushed from his hiding place, went to the house of the priest and sought relief in confessing what he had done.

After the priest had turned Marchesi over to the police, the slayer told a connected story of the crimes, pleading that he had felt justified in killing the pair at the time the deeds were committed, but that later he was sorry such a horrid condition had crept into his life.

Marchesi has lived in Kenosha for ten years and acquired considerable wealth. He was one of the leaders among Italians in the west side quarter in which he lived.

Milton's Foresight Good.

John Milton wrote (prophetically we grant) as follows regarding the teaching of the classics in some modern institutions: "And though a linguist should pride himself to have all the tongues that Babel cleft the world into, yet if he have not studied the solid things in them, as well as the words and lexicons, he were nothing so much to be esteemed a learner as a man as any yeoman or tradesman completely wise in his mother dialect only."

Few Useful Hints.

Stains made by medicines, and especially liniment marks, are among the most obstinate of removal and frequently tax amateur knowledge to the utmost. Iodine marks may, however, be successfully removed by means of liquid ammonia, a little of the spirit being poured into the saucer and the stained garment laid across it and the spot dabbed repeatedly with the fingers until it disappears. It should then be rinsed in tepid water and washed with strong soapuds in the usual manner.

MRS. SANFORD IMPROVED.

IMPEACHMENT OF MAYOR IS ASKED

Socialist Officials of Milwaukee under Fire.

J. P. CARNEY FILES CHARGES

Alleges Malfeasance, Misfeasance and Nonfeasance in Connection with 1911 Tax Assessment—Clerk and Attorney Included.

Milwaukee, Nov. 28.—Minority Leader Joseph P. Carney has filed formal charges in the city council against the Socialist mayor, Emil Seidel, the Socialist clerk, Carl D. Thompson, and Attorney Daniel W. Hoan, and started impeachment proceedings.

The chances of the success of the proceedings are slight, as is evidenced by the fact that the committee named to investigate the Socialist officials is composed of five of the most radical Socialists in the common council. The proceedings will not be started for a week, it is probable.

The charges are based on the tax muddle. The Socialists have accused Tax Commissioner Frank B. Schultz, Democratic state chairman, a hold-over official, of favoring the rich and discriminating against the poor in his assessments.

This charge, Carney says, is made to distract public attention from the increase in taxes under Socialism, which will be $1,000,000 more next year than in the last year of Democratic rule.

Carney's charges of malfeasance are based on the fact that the assessments of which the Socialists complain were indorsed by the board of review of which the mayor, city clerk and city attorney are co-members with the tax commissioner. The Carney charge is that the Socialists, though possessing when they sat as the board of review the information of alleged wrongful assessment, neglected to make corrections as provided by law and now use these errors as a political charge against Schultz.

HEAVY FIGHTING AT TRIPOLI

Turks and Arabs Are Defeated with Losses of Men and Artillery.

London, Nov. 28.—Only censored dispatches have come from any source regarding the alleged heavy fighting and the reported Italian victory at Tripoli. No correspondents were allowed to accompany the Italian forces when they began their advance and the accounts of what took place differ in many details.

All concur in the statement there was heavy fighting that lasted throughout the day and that the cruiser Alberto opened the engagement with her long range guns.

The entire Italian line moved out. The Turks and Arabs are said to have been taken by surprise, but it is admitted that they fought with the courage with which they have long been credited. A dispatch from Rome says that the Turks and Arabs lost 2,000 in killed and many wounded.

The Italians say that they found 500 corpses in the camps and seventy-five at Henni. They captured ten guns and took 300 prisoners, including a number of officers.

REYISTAS INVADE TEPEC

Driven Off When They Attempt to Loot City Treasury.

Monterey, Mex., Nov. 28.—Telegrams received here from Tepec state that a large number of Reyistas have made an attempt to capture the city. After taking possession of the city they went to the barracks and took all of the arms and ammunition available. There being no federalists present they were not molested in the capture.

After this they went to the city treasury to secure the funds on hand, but the federalists fired on them and at once the Reyistas retreated into the mountains.

REVOLUTION SEEMS CERTAIN

Adjutant General Hutchings Thinks Gomez the Propelling Force.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 28.—Adjutant General Henry Hutchings of Texas sent a report to Governor Colquitt that he believes there is a serious possibility of a revolution in Mexico.

He believes that Emilio Vasquez Gomez is working up the revolution in Texas and that his brother, Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, is at work in Mexico, and advises received from Dr. Gomez himself admit that he plans to carry out what he says Maders failed to do.

MULFORD WINS VANDERBILT

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 28.—Ralph K. Mulford, driving a Lozier car, won the Vanderbilt cup on the motor speedway here. Ralph De Palma, driving a Mercedes, was a close second. Mulford's time was 23:00.67. De Palma's time was 23:11.95.

GREAT WIZARD'S LATEST WONDER

Thomas A. Edison Tells President Taft about it.

MOTION PICTURES THAT TALK

Shows Executive How It Would Be Possible in Campaign to Be Seen and Heard by 60,000,000 People and Still Be at Home.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Thomas A. Edison unfolded before President Taft a plan for campaigning without traveling, by which Mr. Taft might be seen and heard not by 5,000,000 but by 60,000,000 of the nation's voters without absenting himself for a day from business at the White House.

It is the newest invention of Mr. Edison, the talking motion picture machine. All that would be necessary, Mr. Edison explained to the president, would be for a man to go before an audience, made a speech on any subject which he chose and the talking motion picture machine would reproduce to audiences all over the country every gesture of the speaker, every word of his speech and every shout of the crowd about him.

In his recent trip the president appeared in 216 cities and towns by arrangement and spoke from the platform of his car in perhaps a hundred small places. His secretary estimated that he had seen 5,000,000 people. This took up fifty-eight days of the president's precious time and besides put a strain on him that brought him down with a cold, which kept him out of the executive office for four days more.

Mr. Edison proposes to eliminate all of this or at least multiply more than a hundredfold the results of every speech. He claims that his invention will place the scene before the audience with life-like vividness. He told the president that he manufactured twenty sets at his laboratories in New Jersey and that 200 more were under construction. Many sets have already been sold, too. Mr. Edison was in Washington in search of rest. He had never met the president before.

TAFT'S NEW NAVAL AIDE

Son-in-Law of Former Vice President Fairbanks Is Appointed.

Washington, Nov. 28.—President Taft has appointed Lieutenant John W. Timmins, U. S. N., to be naval aide at the White House, succeeding Lieutenant Commander L. C. Palmer, who has been chosen by Secretary of the Navy Meyer to be his personal aide. Lieutenant Timmins was chosen by the president upon recommendation of the navy department. He is a son-in-law of former Vice President Fairbanks.

DIXON HOSPITAL IS RECOGNIZED

SUPERINTENDENT CASEY RECEIVES NOTIFICATION OF REGISTRATION OF THE NURSES' SCHOOL.

Word has been received by Miss Casey, superintendent of the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital, that the school for nurses in connection with the hospital has been registered by the Illinois state board of examiners of registered nurses.

In order that a school may be registered it must meet certain requirements. These are as follows:

1. The training school or institution of which it is a part must be incorporated.
2. The training school must be connected with a general or special hospital, having not less than 25 beds, and the number of student nurses shall not exceed one-half to one-fourth the number of beds governed by the facilities for private or ward patients.
3. The principal of the training school shall be a registered nurse or eligible to registration.
4. The training school shall require of all applicants that they be not less than 20 years of age, of good moral character, of good physical and mental health and free from any habit rendering them unsafe to be entrusted with or unfit for the care of the sick; one year's work in high school or its equivalent.
5. The training school shall require a systematic course of at least three years' training.
6. The instruction shall be theoretical and practical.

By the school being registered it allows the nurses graduating from this school to make application for registration. After passing an examination she is given a certificate of registration which allows her the use of the title R. N. (Registered Nurse). Nurse registration is not compulsory in Illinois, for the care of the sick, but it does note to the public that the woman who is allowed the use of the title R. N. has graduated from a school for nurses which has met the approval of the state board and also that she has creditably passed an examination on nursing topics before said board. Some of the objects which the state board of examiners hopes to aid in accomplishing are to not only ask that women of responsible age and education and of good character be entered in these schools, but that they shall be given such instruction, both in theory and practice as shall be commensurate with the time and efforts spent in such school by them.

The Katherine Shaw Bethel school is affiliated with the Children's Free hospital, Milwaukee, where the pupils receive special training in the care of sick children. This course covers a period of four months and is taken during the pupils' second year in training. Transportation and monthly allowance being defrayed by the Children's Free hospital, Milwaukee, during their term of training there.

ACTUAL STARVATION

FACTS ABOUT INDIGESTION AND ITS RELIEF THAT SHOULD INTEREST YOU.

Although Indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking good-smelling and good tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food. We believe we can relieve Dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want everyone troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritated stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 25c package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community at our store—The Rexall Store, C. M. Campbell & Son, 105 First St.

NO SPECIAL SESSION

Governor Marshall of Indiana Not to Call Legislature.

He Also States His Ideas Upon What a Man Should Do Who Seeks Presidential Nomination.

Indianapolis, Nov. 28.—In announcing that he would not call a special session of the legislature to order, a presidential primary Governor Marshall took occasion to expose the plan that has been suggested by some of his friends to get into the presidential race. He said:

"I do not consider myself a candidate for president of the United States. That is up to the people themselves. It is for the people of Indiana to decide whether I am a candidate. They should be the ones to settle that question. But when I have been approached with the suggestion that I ought to be a candidate for president and then get some big, rich banker to back me and finance my campaign on a promise from me that I would appoint him to some good office in case of my election, I have said to those who made the suggestion, 'Not on your life.' I would not promise anything. When a man asks that the people hold primaries, and express their preference for president he should be willing to be fair with the people. He should tell them what he stands for, what he thinks should be in his party's platform, where he is getting the money with which to make his campaign, and just what promises he has made. I regard pledges of office and appointment as being fully as dangerous as the use of money in a campaign."

WEAK MIND, POOLE DEFENSE

Farmer Driven to Murder by Specters, Attorney Contends.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 28.—That John Poole was haunted by specters and suffered from constant hallucinations which impelled him to do strange things is the assertion of his attorney, Elmore Barco, who opened the defense in the Poole murder trial. Barco said Poole was so obsessed by the horrid creatures of a disordered mind that he was led to homicide.

The first witness for the defense was Rev. G. W. Infield. He testified to many strange actions on the part of the defendant.

NANKIN LOYALISTS ON TOP

Revolutionists Flee Toward Wu-Chang, Pursued by Imperial Troops.

Pekin, Nov. 28.—While all indications point to the ultimate success of the rebels in the fighting around Nankin, the imperial forces have again the upper hand in the Hankow district.

The American consul at Hankow wired his legation here that after the imperial forces had captured the rebel positions the revolutionists fled to Wu-Chang, whither they were being pursued by the loyal troops. The losses of the rebels are described as numerous.

TAFT MESSAGE 6,000 WORDS

One of the Shortest Annals by a President in Recent Years.

Washington, Nov. 28.—President Taft has completed his annual message to congress and the copy has been sent to the government printing office. The message is said to be about 6,000 words in length, one of the shortest annual messages written in recent years. The cabinet at today's session took a last look at it.

The president will deal with the tariff question later in a special message.

GOVERNORS BEGIN TRIP

Start from St. Paul for Visit to the East.

First Stop Is in Chicago and Busy Day Is Being Put in in City by the Lake.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Governors of eleven states are the guests of Chicago today. The state executives began last evening in St. Paul a 4,000 mile trip, in which Chicago is the first stop. Before they disperse for their homes they will have visited twenty-one cities in the east, doing what one of them recently called "missionary work" for the west and northwest. The governors in the party and the states they represent follow:

A. O. Eberhart, Minnesota; J. M. Carey, Wyoming; John Burke, North Dakota; E. L. Norris, Montana; Oswald West, Oregon; J. F. Shafroth, Colorado; Robert S. Vessey, South Dakota; J. H. Hawley, Idaho; M. E. Hay, Washington; T. L. Oddie, Nevada; H. W. Johnson, California.

Members of the party were called together by former Governor James H. Brady of Idaho, who accompanied them on their trip. Governor Vessey of South Dakota, who was in Chicago for several days, went to St. Paul to join the party.

Late tonight the governors will leave for Kalamazoo, Mich.

NEW CARDINALS CONFIRMED

America Will Now Have Four Representatives in Cardinalate.

Rome, Nov. 28.—Obedient to a summons from Pope Pius X., the cardinals in Rome assembled in a secret consistory and confirmed the papal nomination of nineteen new members in the college of cardinals, the supreme governing body of the Roman Catholic church.

Of those thus honored three are citizens of the United States—Mgr. John M. Farley, archbishop of New York; Mgr. William O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, and Mgr. Dionede Falconio, apostolic delegate at Washington.

Thus, with Cardinal Gibbons, America will have now for the first time a representation of four in the cardinalate, which, probably much as now constituted, will elect a successor to the reigning pontiff.

Forshadowings of Fashion

STRIPES HAVE had a long and pronounced season of favor abroad and it seems likely that their popularity with the more fastidious public is waning, yet there are some good striped models from authoritative sources and there seems to be a decided liking for the plain monotone cloths faced in fine stripe and for stripes used as trimming.

Much velvet is promised, the fine chiton velvets in monotone, stripes, check and flecked effects all appearing among the dressy models, and while one hears that satin will not have the vogue as costume material that it enjoyed last winter, the fact remains that the French makers have sent over some exceedingly handsome costumes in satin, particularly in the wool black satin. There have been shown some excessively chic models in black wool back satin, fur trimmed, and there is apparently to be as much fur used for trimming this season as was used last winter, if not more.

This is true in millinery as in dress-making and the most adorable little fur caps and toques are tucked away among tissue papers for future showing. Some of these are oddly trimmed with wreaths of little crocheted wool flowers and foliage, absurdly quaint and likable. But if one begins to talk of the new millinery one is launched upon a long tale and it must wait for another time.

Bolero lines have not been set aside with the summer and the Directorate period is by no means shelved. There are cutaway coats of all kinds and coatfalls in great variety. There are short waists and long waists.

The kimono sleeve once more defies prophecy and refuses to die, although its hold is distinctly weakened. The long, close shoulder line is retained, but there is often an armhole seam or cord, and the sleeve is usually so cut underneath as to fit up snugly around the arm instead of giving a loose side body and underarm fullness as did the kimono.

The trotting frock of the one-piece order this fall, at its smartest, has long, close sleeves and the smart blouses are taking on long sleeves. Yet one of the best Parisian houses has chosen this time to exploit a costume coat with belt and kimono sleeves, and some of the best importers have brought it over. A kimono sleeve in cloth has never been particularly attractive or graceful, except perhaps in connection with a big, ample cover all coat, and this latest model is no exception to the rule.

Southern Graham Bread

Two-thirds of a cup of brown sugar, two tablespoonsful of New Orleans molasses, one and one-half cup of sour milk, one teaspoonful soda, one level teaspoonful of salt, two cups of graham flour, one-half cup of seeded raisins. Bake in a slow oven for one hour.

Grape Jelly

After washing and removing stems boil grapes for ten minutes, then rub through a porcelain colander, to remove seeds. Cook for fifteen minutes more, then strain through a sieve, and also through a jelly bag. Measure and allow an equal amount of sugar. Boil juice for five minutes while sugar heats in the oven, then add hot sugar, and boil four minutes longer. Skim carefully, pour into glasses and set in a sunny window. Seal after twenty-four hours.

Chow Chow

One peck of green tomatoes chopped fine, salt; let them stand over night; chop enough cabbage to make one gallon, salt and let stand over night, then squeeze cabbage and tomatoes very dry; the next morning chop one dozen of sweet mangoes very fine, one quart of celery after it is chopped fine. One pound of brown sugar, five cents' worth of celery seed, five cents' worth of mustard seed, enough vinegar to cover; let it come to boiling point.

Lemon Butter

Boil together a half pound of brown sugar, a tablespoonful of vinegar and a gill of water for ten minutes and add a heaping tablespoonful of butter. Boil until the candy becomes brittle when taken from the fire and dropped into cold water. Add to it the juice of a lemon and pour into a shallow well greased pan.

Frozen Peach Foam

If one wishes to make a delicious frozen dessert of fresh peaches, and not incur the expense of cream and eggs for ice cream, let one try a fruit surprise. To prepare this peel and chop very small enough, ripe peaches to make a quart. Add to them a cup of granulated sugar.

Sea Foam Candy

Cook three cupfuls brown sugar and one tablespoonful of vinegar until the sirup forms a hard ball when dropped in cold water; pour it slowly over the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, beating continually until the candy is stiff enough to hold its shape. Then, if liked, work in a cup of chopped nuts and half a teaspoonful of vanilla. Drop in small pieces on waxed paper.

Quick Coffee Cake

One tablespoonful butter, one tablespoonful lard, one pinch salt, one cupful sugar, one egg, beat all together, three and one-half cupfuls flour, two teaspoonfuls baking powder, add enough milk to make a stiff batter. Put sliced apples on top, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Sliced peaches are also nice.

For the Home Laundress

Lacy and delicate materials need careful handling, which they do not receive at the hands of the average laundress. Every woman should do such work for herself if possible. Rightly managed, it does not take much time or trouble, and the result is infinitely more satisfactory.

If possible have pure rain water or other soft water, as you want that which is free from lime or iron. If you soften the water with sal soda, borax or ammonia, the proportion should be one tablespoonful to a gallon of water. See that it is entirely dissolved before placing the clothes in it. In washing waists and neckwear trimmed profusely with lace and embroideries use warm suds made from castile or similar soap. Lacy things should not be rubbed too much, but simply squeezed, and should not be boiled too long. Then rinse, bleach and blue and hang in bright sunshine and fresh air, to dry. Do not use too much bluing. Try first with a white cloth before dipping any wearing apparel into it.

For sheer materials either rice starch or gum arabic water may be used for stiffening.

Rice Starch.—One fourth pound of rice in one quart of water until cooked to a pulp, adding more water if necessary. Now pour on one quart more of hot water and strain through a cloth.

Gum Arabic Water.—Take one ounce of the best gum arabic and one-half pint of boiling water, pour water over the gum and let stand, stirring frequently; strain through a cloth and then bottle.

Half an hour before ironing sprinkle and roll in a towel. A corn broom makes a good sprinkler. Use warm water, as it spreads better and does not spot the clothes. Do not let them lie long or they will mildew. Be sure your irons are clean and rub a little paraffin over each one and try on paper before using. Remember that ponce should always be ironed when it is dry, and with a warm, hot iron, iron. Iron sleeves first, and by using a rather small iron you will find it possible to iron them without creasing, even if you do not possess a sleeve board. Then iron the body of the waist, doing the tucks and plain part first on the right side, leaving the embroidery and lace, which should be ironed on the wrong side, for the last. To iron tucks nicely start at the shoulder, holding the waist at the bottom of the tucks firmly with the left hand to straighten them.

Wash Irish crochet lace with soap and water, rinse thoroughly, then dip in thin cold starch, putting a drop of bluing in the starch. Have several thicknesses of blanket, covered by an ironing sheet, on the table. Lay the lace right side down on it, cover with a cloth and iron until dry, pressing down hard. Then take your crochet hook and carefully pull out each little picot, raise all the petals of the flowers, then press the balls into shape with your fingers. Even a large piece like a coat or waist can be done at home just as well as at the cleaners by following these directions.

Before washing the side plaited frills and jabots, which are so pretty and popular, and yet so hard to "do up," run a row of basting stitches about an inch from the outer edge. That will hold the plaits in position while washing and will save time and trouble later in ironing. These frills, by the way, should when possible be made separate from the blouse and buttoned, hooked or pinned on, so that they do not have to go so often to the tub. They really do not get dirty so quickly as the more exposed parts of the blouse. If you buy a ready made blouse with frills stitched on it is an easy matter to rip them off and supply buttons and button holes. When ironing begin at the bottom, pulling gently from the top. The plaits adjust themselves.

To Put Up Corn in Jars

Put tender ears of corn in a colander and let a little hot water run over them for a moment. Then cut the corn from the cob, scraping out the juice and reserving the hulls. Pack into sterilized jars the kernels, working down compactly with a silver knife. When filled to within an inch of the top dissolve for each quart can a teaspoonful of salt and sugar in three quarters pint warm water and pour over the corn. Adjust the lid and steam three hours. Then take out and screw tightly, return and cook three-quarters of an hour longer. The boiling should be continuous.

Preserved Citron

Peel and seed the citrons with great care; cut into pieces about three or four inches in size and place the pieces over the fire in preserving kettle. Water should be added—just enough to cover the citron. Cook slowly until able to pierce with a straw. Take out with a skimmer and place on a platter, and add to the remaining juice sugar in the proportion of a pound and a half to each pint of juice. Cook sugar and juice until all scum ceases to rise and then put the citron back and boil for over an hour. Take the citron out again; add to the juice three sliced lemons to every four quarts of citron; remove only the seeds from the lemons, and let this boil for fifteen minutes. Turn the citron into jars and only half fill them with the fruit; fill up with the hot juice and seal.

Sugarless Preserves

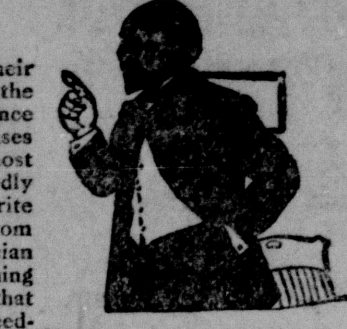

Now that the price of sugar has gone up and canning season is here, a few hints in how to can fruit without sugar are timely. Pare your peaches or pears and stew in clear water until tender. Can just the same as when sweetened. Add sugar at time of reopening according to taste. Open about half hour before using.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

WHY SO WEAK?

KIDNEY TROUBLES MAY BE SAVING YOUR LIFE AWAY. DIXON PEOPLE HAVE LEARNED THIS FACT

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills make sick kidneys well. Here is Dixon testimony to prove it.

Mrs. William Toot, 512 W. Second St., Dixon, Ill., says: "I suffered for years from kidney complaint and my back ached persistently. I was so weak at times that I could not attend to my housework and nothing did me any good. Finally, I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co's Drug store, and they cured me. I feel that my experience should convince the most skeptical person of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. I know of a number of other people who have taken this remedy with great benefit" (Statement given February 5, 1907.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT

Mrs. Toot was interviewed on January 5, 1910, and she added to the above: "I have no hesitation in verifying my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. During the time that has elapsed, I have taken this remedy occasionally and it has always brought prompt and effective relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Wine From Concord Grapes

Put the grapes, stems and cover in an open cask and mash them. Cover your cask with cheesecloth to prevent anything from falling in, as one crumb of bread will change the contents into vinegar. When the grapes have fermented pass through a fruit press; turn the juice that has been extracted into a clean, close cask and let it remain on its side for a month, when your wine will be ready to be bottled. By no means disturb the cask or the wine will not be clear. Keep the wine in a dark, cool place and lay the bottles containing it on their sides. Another recipe when the wine ages, is as follows: Take twenty pounds of ripe, fresh-picked and selected grapes. Put them into a stone jar and pour over them six quarts of boiling water. When sufficiently cool to allow it, squeeze them thoroughly with the hand. Let them stand three days on the pomace. Then press out the juice, add ten pounds of granulated sugar or four pounds to the gallon, and let remain a week longer in the jar. Strain and bottle, leaving a vent until done fermenting, when strain again, bottle and seal. The last straining, if possible, should be done through a wad of cotton in a glass funnel, which would properly be termed filtering. All sediment must be removed, in order to keep the good, pure flavor. The sugar, if dissolved in water and cooked until a rich syrup and then blended with the juice, will quicken the process of fermentation.

Candied Citron

Wash and wipe the citrons; cut into halves or quarters; remove the center and throw the rinds into cold water to soak for at least five days, changing the water at least twice a day. At the end of this time put them into a porcelain lined kettle and cover with cold water; boil rapidly for one hour; strain, cover with fresh boiling water and boil for another hour; then drain in a colander. To each pound, allow one pound of sugar, a half-cup of water; put the sugar and the water into a kettle, stir until dissolved, bring to boiling point, put in the citron and cook slowly for half an hour. Stand aside over night. Next day lift the citron carefully with a skimmer, hold down the strip, pour it over the fruit; let stand for another day; then put into pans and stand in the sun to dry. This will take at least three or four days. Dust with granulated sugar and keep in a dry place. The leftover syrup may be used for some other purpose.

Mock Angel Food

Sift four times: One cup sugar, one cup flour, three teaspoons baking powder, pinch of salt. Add to the above mixture one cup of milk heated to boiling point. Beat well, add flavoring, then put in whites of three eggs beaten stiff. Fold, but do not stir eggs in. Bake in regular angel food cake tin (kind with hole in center) until it does not adhere to broom-stem. Have oven very hot until cake has risen, then cool it by degrees until cake is done. Leave in a pan and turn at once upside down to cool. This makes a large cake.

Cleaning Brass

Badly tarnished brass may be cleaned with ease if first rubbed with salt and vinegar and exalic acid. Following with a good wash of soap and water, then polish with any good cleaning preparation.

To Can Lima Beans

Shell the beans, cook for fifteen minutes in boiling water slightly salted. Season with salt and pepper. Take the beans from the pot with a perforated spoon and put them in jars standing in a pan of hot water. Boil up and skim the liquor remaining in the kettle and fill the jars to the brims with this seal at once.

For A Scorch Stain

Scorched spots sometimes may be removed by means of a paste made of half an ounce of earth secured at a druggist's; the juice of two peeled onions and one cupful of vinegar. Stir well and let it boil thoroughly. Coat before spreading over the scorched spot and let it remain until dry; then wash out.

Removing Mildew From Lawn Dresses

Mix spoonful of table salt, 2 of soft soap, 2 of powdered starch and the juice of a lemon, lay this on both sides of the mildewed clothes with a painter's brush and lay them on the grass day and night until the stain disappears.

Sour Cream Cookies

Two eggs, one and one-half cupfuls sugar, three-fourths cup butter, three-fourths cup sour cream, or milk, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful nutmeg, one fourth teaspoonful cloves, one teaspoonful soda, a pinch of salt, three and one-half cupfuls flour, one-half teaspoonful baking powder. This recipe will make about fifty cookies.

STUFFED CUCUMBERS—The cucumbers should be of good size and just turning yellow. Pare and halve them crosswise, scoop out the seeds with the handle of a teaspoon and simmer in boiling salted water for ten minutes. A filling is made with any cold meat on hand, chopped fine, a spoonful of chopped ham, a spoonful of fine crumbs, salt and pepper to season and enough stewed tomato to moisten. Each piece is filled with this, then placed upright in a deep pan. A cupful of thin brown sauce mixed with tomato sauce is poured round them and the cucumbers are baked for forty-five minutes.

MRS. VERMILYA HELD FOR CRIME

Coroner's Jury Renders Verdict against Her.

THINKS SHE IS A POISONER

Chicago Woman Accused of Murdering
Police Officer Will Be Held to Grand Jury—Alleged Motive Shown.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A coroner's jury in the case of Arthur Bissonette, probationary policeman, who is believed to be one of the victims of the alleged poisoning mania of Mrs. Louise Vermilya, rendered a verdict that Bissonette came to his death from arsenical poisoning, presumably administered by Mrs. Vermilya, and recommended that the woman be held to the grand jury.

The verdict is as follows:
"We, the jury, are of the opinion that Arthur Bissonette came to his death at Mercy hospital from arsenical poisoning. And we, the jury, believe that said poison was administered by Mrs. Louise Vermilya. And we, the jury, recommend that said Louise Vermilya be held to the grand jury until discharged by due process of law."

The verdict was no surprise. Enough testimony was adduced to show conclusively that Bissonette died from the effects of large quantities of arsenic, and enough testimony to show a connection between the death of Bissonette and Mrs. Vermilya also was brought out.

The case of the woman who stands formally accused of the death of the policeman and who is suspected of having caused the deaths of eight other persons in the last few years by means of arsenic, will be taken before the grand jury without delay by the state's attorney's office. It is expected that she will be held for trial by the grand jury. After that the battle for the life of the woman will begin.

Testimony to show an alleged motive for the death of Bissonette—jealousy on the part of Mrs. Vermilya —was given at the inquest by Miss Lydia Rivard, the fiancée of Bissonette.

STEPHENSON VOTE HELD O. K.

Committee Finds No Bribery, but Frowns on Large Expense.

Washington, Nov. 28.—With the declaration that no instances of vote-buying were disclosed, but with words of censure for the use of large sums of money in his campaign, the senate committee, which investigated the election of United States Senator
Isaac Stephenson, is expected to report shortly after the opening of congress.

Senator Stephenson, according to a well-founded report here, will be declared fully entitled to his seat. The use of money in the Stephenson campaign was the result of the Wisconsin primary system, it was asserted in the hearings, and a condemnation of that system, either in the committee's report or by members of the committee on the floor of the senate, is expected.
